TESTIMONY

Hello everybody. I hope you all are doing well. First off I would like to give thanks to God for giving me my dad. I thank God everyday for him. He has helped me a lot these past months. He is one of my greatest role models in my life. He is a great man of God. I take for granted that I have him in my life sometimes, but I still love him. Recently I got into a huge argument with one of my friends at school. I was broken hearted, but when I realized that God could fix and mend my broken heart, that was when I finally put all my trust in God's hands and I gave that situation to him. He set my feet on higher ground so that I could go up a little higher with him and I can tell you right now anything that you are struggling with, God is bigger than your problems. In this trial I have grown closer to so many of my brothers and sisters that I never would've thought I would grow close to. And in that I love God more than ever. He is everything to me. He has given me the strength to move on and enjoy the life I live in. God bless you all!

"The Pergamean Church Age"

"Try to do something good and just keep being good; hold no malice, no grudges, don't let any bitterness. No matter how bad the person is and how bad they talk about you, don't you never think evil in your heart against them; 'cause right there the devil will set right in, work up something right there. Just keep it all covered up with godly love, confession, and making right, and do good to those who do evil to you. "If you only do good to those who do good to you, why," Jesus said, "don't the publicans the same?" See?

The sinners, anybody can be good to those that's good to them. But be good to those who are not good to you, do something for those that would not do nothing for you. Speak a good word for the man that would speak evil against you, and that way you keep all the bitterness out of your heart; and you're always in love with everybody then, as long as you stay in love."

Reflections

“ It’s not our aptitude but it is our attitude that determines our altitude “

Surely it’s a grand privilege to be a Christian and to greet and share the Word of God with my fellow Christian brothers and sisters. Not by name, but by the experience that brings us together into one Body. We understand that as time goes on, it’s not easy to walk in our journey and it won’t be easy, simply because the Bible tells us the condition at the end time. II Timothy 3:1 “This know also, that in the last days perilous times shall come”. It is evident we are in the last days. For the unbeliever it is a terrible thing, but to the Believer there isn’t anything greater than to see the Word of God come to manifestation before OUR own eyes in OUR day. As our Pastor said the other day, “The joy it is to see in reality what our Prophet saw in vision”, because The Word isn’t just about the horrible things at the end, but it gives us an assurance that there is a Bride that will continue the work that God entrusted into our hands at this time, in our Day. But we seem to lose sight of the great things for us because of circumstances that arise. We fall below our privileges as sons and daughters of God when we have been given what we need.... the tools and example by our Prophet, our Founding Pastor, our Pastor, to rise above any circumstance. It’s our attitude that makes us rise above or drop below when we face our daily challenges. As Martha Washington said: “The greater part of our happiness or misery depends upon our dispositions, and not upon our circumstances.” We know where to go when needs are present, but we miss it sometimes because of our approach. Brother Branham tells us:

”It’s your attitude of approach, how you approach anything”

“But it’s the attitude of the people that brings the results. That’s the reason at Pentecost they had to go to an upper room and pray until the Holy Ghost came, ‘cause they got in one place and one accord. It’s the atmosphere what brings the results. You believe that?”

56-0129 - The Supernatural”

“Now, the right mental attitude... All you along here, do you understand what I mean when I say, “The right mental attitude?” That’s... Your right mental attitude towards God’s Divine promise will bring any promise to pass.”

51-0415E - The Hour Is Come

Excellence is not a skill, it’s an attitude, that shows the characteristic of an overcomer as we patiently and gratefully advance, not looking at the things around us, but looking to our promise. For patience is not the ability to wait, but the ability to keep a good attitude while waiting and not complaining because times are bad or things don’t go as we plan. We have a more sure word of prophesy and we do not walk blind.

Abraham Lincoln once said: “We can complain because rose bushes have thorns, or rejoice because thorn bushes have roses.”

It all depends on how you see where you stand. Attitude is simply a position before your circumstances.

David always had the right approach to God and he was a man after God’s own Heart.

It is Harvest Time..... Rejoice for our redemption is near!!!

Walk with your face tall, always looking to the “SON”, and the shadows will fall behind.
