REFLECTIONS

Brother Diego Castrillon

Isaias 59:1-2

Si Dios es Dios, el sigue siendo el mismo. Isaias el profeta lo afirma diciendo la mano de Jehová no se ha acortado para salvar. Ni se ha agravado su oído para oír. El mismo Dios que se encontró con Moises en la sarsa ardiendo, tiene que ser el mismo hoy. El mismo Dios que liberto a Israel, tiene que ser el mismo hoy. El mismo Dios que prometio a Josue que sus enemigos serian derrotados ese Dios tiene que ser el mismo hoy. Pero nuestras iniquidades dise el profeta Isaias nos han aportado. Seamos sinceros y reconozcamos nuestras faltas. Jesus es fiel y justo para perdonamos y el mismo Dios de ayer sera el mismo Dios de Hoy en todo.

Isaiah 59:1-2

If God is God, He remains the same... The prophet Isaiah said: Behold, the Lord's hand is not shortened, that it cannot save; neither his ear heavy, that it cannot hear, the same God that met with Moses at the burning bush, has to be the same today, the same God who freed Israel has to be the same today, the same God who promised Joshua that his enemies would be defeated, that God has to be the same today!!! But because our iniquities says the prophet Isaiah, we have departed. Let us be sincere and recognize our faults. Jesus is faithful and righteous to forgive us, and the same God of yesterday will be the same God of today and throughout.

Music nowadays has a tremendous influence on the youth. A brother of mine from Phoenix once said that, "Worldly music brings forth worldly spirits. Now heavenly music brings forth heavenly spirits." But music played on "Christian" radio stations seems too alternative. It's like Christian music is competing with worldly music. When I think of heaven I imagine sweet, calm music playing. Not electric guitars and crazy drum solos. Music has definitely changed for Christians and it's only going to continue to change. It's all just to give the youth a perspective of the times we are living in. Christians look for the emotion in music. But the Bible teaches, and Bro. Branham says to "Only Believe!" Jeremiah 17:9 reads, "The heart is deceitful above all things, and desperately sick; who can understand it?" The Lord works in simplicity. God created us to be instruments with the ability to sing and make music. Music is an important part of worship and praise to God. I encourage you to read, Ephesians 5:19.
