Thankful Hearts

"I'm grateful for this opportunity to share with you how thankful I am of God. I'm thankful for all my trials and tribulations because of them, I know who God is. I know that He is with me and my trials are molding me to be who He wants me to be. Without trials and tribulations, I wouldn't know what Faith could do. I've learned to trust Him. In the message, Speak to the Rock and it Shall Give Forth of it's Water, Bro. Branham says, "Don't look at your symptoms, look to the Promise." For this, I am Thankful! God bless you."

-Sister Crystal Cazares-

"I'd just like to say how thankful I am for each and every one of you. I am constantly inspired and energized by you all. And I'd just like to say thank you for all your love & encouragements. I am blessed beyond measure. I'm so thankful to God for your lives."

-Sister Viola Perez-

Thank you Lord.

Lord I want to say thank you. Lord for you are Great and for the life of mine you transformed. How could I ever repay what you have done for me? What would I do without the love you have given me? I dedicate my life to you in service. In thanksgiving, I lift my voice to sing of your goodness. I display to everyone that my redeemer lives. You are the air that I breathe. Your word is spiritual food and life unto my soul. Lord thank you from the bottom of my heart.

Thank you for your word, my brethren, my family, my pastor, the ministry. Thank you lord for your blessings on me. Let me now be a blessing to your children.

"If heaven were never promised to me, even God's promise to live eternally, it's been worth just having the lord in my life." -Michael Mathis

-Brother Seth Perez-

It was a pleasure having our friends, The Osorios, here with us. We pray that God blesses you and gives you traveling mercies back home.

The Little Drummer Boy's:
CHRIST IS BORN

COMING SOON!

Well, that's the way I think about Jesus. I love His gifts and things to help His people, but I want Jesus. The love of God, sealed in your heart, pressed in until all the world's pressed out and you see nothing but the Lord, to love Him. And as you love one another, you love the Lord. If you don't love one another, you can't love the Lord. He said so. That's right. And God can't move into you.

Reflections

"We are bound to thank God always for you, brethren, as it is meet, because that your faith groweth exceedingly, and the charity of every one of you all toward each other aboundeth;"
 (2 Thessalonians 1:3)

I greet you in the precious name of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. As we enter this Thanksgiving season, I reflect on the many things we can be thankful for; the blessings of God in our lives, the people that God has blessed us with and the faith that we have in Christ. We should count our blessings and return praise to God for His goodness. It is also important for us to remember, that we should give thanks every day, not just once a year on the fourth Thursday of November. During these days of reflection, one of my favorite bible stories when I was a kid, was the story of the ten lepers (Luke 17:12-19). These individuals called out to Jesus for mercy. He sends them to the priests and when they go they are miraculously healed. But only one of the men comes back to thank Jesus. The moral of the story? We should be like the man who came back. We should thank Jesus for his mercy in our lives. It is a great privilege to be a Christian and my prayer, is that we all let our light shine, so that others may find the light and the message that it offers. Remember, "In all things give thanks."

God bless you.
